

Department of Accounting

Program Learning Outcomes PLOs:

PLO1. Understand, interpret and analyze accounting information for a variety of business sectors.

PLO2. Apply international accounting standards, international financial reporting standards and international auditing standards in business organization ethically and responsibly.

PLO3. Evaluate and apply appropriate concepts and quantitative techniques for decision making within organizations.

PLO4. Produce reasoned arguments and reach logical conclusions and supporting evidence by reference to relevant theoretical frameworks.

PLO5. Use a variety of sources to provide the data necessary to conduct enquiries relating to specific issues of interest within the domains of accounting and management sciences.

PLO6. Understand the role of IT in accounting practices and use accounting applications.

PLO7. Communicate ideas and arguments in a variety of written formats in both Arabic and English

PLO8. Apply the knowledge and skills learnt in internships in Jordanian businesses.

PLO 9. Demonstrate good knowledge and ability to do research.

List of Competencies LoC:

Knowledge

A1 Demonstrate an understanding of Accounting International Standards and best practices.

A2- Ability to assess in-detail/in-depth the various relevant issues related to Accounting risk factors at personal, organizational and social levels.

A3- Ability to articulate and explain technical and conceptual issues in relation to solving real-life risk events using a range of Accounting management strategies and applications.

A4 Demonstrate an understanding of the potential critical risk that various organizations could face.

Thinking skills

B1 Ability to analyze past, present and future occurrences/events using the best available information, tools and techniques.

B2 Demonstrates an adequate understanding of the use of different numerical and quantitative methods related to Accounting analysis.

B3 Demonstrates an understanding of the various interactions between humans and systems.

B4 Demonstrates an ability to propose different meaningful future scenarios according to the currently – available resources.

Practical Skills

C1 Utilize the skills gained from studying Accounting functions to enhance decision making.

C2 Demonstrate ability to deploy International Standards and best practices of Accounting in real organizations.

C3 Ability to provide advice for real organizations on how to improve their Accounting practices.

C4 Demonstrate ability to create Accounting framework, Accounting strategies, policies and plans

Communication skills

D1 Demonstrate debating skills in aspects related to Accounting systems

D2 Demonstrate ability to communicate with media and other local authorities about various Accounting risk events/threats

